At the outset, the Collector, Daman welcomed all the Political leaders/ officers from the Administration and apprised all present that this year 52nd year of Liberation day is to be celebrated and invited their suggestions to be implemented in the programme on 19th December, 2012 and also sought their co-operation.

The Collector, Daman asked for their suggestion regarding venue of the programme, whether it should be in the Bandodkar Stadium or Government College ground. All the present were of the opinion that the venue should be Bandodkar Stadium as it is situated in the middle of the town and it will be convenient for all to attend the function. The Collector apprised them that it creates traffic problem/ parking etc as the place is very small. However, the political leaders present suggested that the venue should be Bandodkar Stadium only.

Shri Vasu Patel, General Secretary, BJP., Daman suggested that sitting arrangements for all the Political Parties should be done properly. The Collector informed that the sitting arrangement will be done protocol wise and staff will be deputed to manage the same. Shri Vasu Patel further stated that it should be ensured that all the Government officers/officials attend the functions. The Collector stated that this time department wise attendance of the staff will be taken at the venue to ensure that all attends the function.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the chair.
